Social Security Benefits May Be Due Some in Area

Some people who were turned down when they applied for social security benefits some years ago may have checks due them, reports Miles Davis, manager of the social security district office in Torrance.

Work requirements which determine whether social security benefits are payable have been changed a number of times since the law was originally passed. As a result, some older people who were once ineligible may now receive cash payments.

Davis said many persons may be losing back social security payments because they have not been in touch with the office in the last three years. Applications are retroactive for only a 12-month period.

The district manager urged all persons over 65 who are not receiving social security benefits to contact his office. Even those told they were not eligible for benefits should check again to be sure.

In addition to Torrance, the district serves persons in Gardena, Harbor City, Hermosa, Redondo and Manhattan Beach, El Segundo, Palos Verdes, Rolling Hills, and Lomita.

The office is located at 1408 Crenshaw Blvd. The telephone number is 320-4020.

SOMETHING NEW . . . Joseph Cappucco, blaming Mayor Albert ISEN because his Cabrillo Avenue building has been vacant for more than a year, has designated the building as the headquarters for a recall movement against the mayor. The building remains empty, and early yesterday someone threw beer bottles through the front of the building, breaking out most of the windows. ISEN denied he was responsible for the lack of tenants in the building when Cappucco appeared before the City Council last year.
